we inspire magic and connection

We help intuitive Earth honoring people go from feeling powerless and alone to knowing that magic is real, it lives in them, and their magic can have a positive impact on their everyday lives and the world around them.

Podcast Collective Social Network

We facilitate sacred connection through our free podcast and paid online memberships, where magical folks can find a sense of belonging, vulnerably witness one another, develop their intuition, make magical friends, and spark their creative voice.

Our audience trusts us to connect them with people and brands that have integrity, are aligned with their values, and will transform their lives for the better. We carefully select every podcast guest, workshop host, and sponsor with our audience's needs in mind, and we do our best to present collaborators in the best light possible.

Your Team is what made my launch successful

"Launching a new program can be hard and demanding. Thanks to the Earth Speak team, my business experienced the most profitable launch we've have had to date. Being able to connect me with the right audience was huge. I don't think I will ever launch alone again."
